Get the news your kids don't tell you

Written and edited entirely by students, the Pony Express is the best way to find out what's really going on at San Marin.

Please consider making an extra contribution to help purchase new technology. We do not receive any funding from NUSD and rely solely on support from readers like you and advertising revenue. We have big plans for this year and invite you to help us make the Pony Express an even better newspaper.

Fill in the information below and enclose your tax deductible contribution and we'll mail you each issue.
